Women Organizing Women, Inc. Midwest Division, will be hosting an Inaugural Women’s Conference entitled “Women Essential for Mission,” Romans 16: 1-2 on Friday, March 24-26, 2023, at the Swan Lake Resort located in Plymouth Indiana.

We are expecting the blessings of God to empower, encourage and elevate us while eliminating the falsehood of the enemy that cause division. It will be a time for women to birth and put into action their Kingdom gifts of evangelism, intercessory prayer, and leadership while acquiring an understanding our Kingdom assignments, as we are in the last days.

The time is now for iron to sharpen iron, teach and equip women of God on how to take back their families, communities and conquer the enemy once and for all! We are calling for all women of all ages to come together in Kingdom building to ensure that all generations realize that we are all “Essential for Mission.”

The Conference objectives are to unite women in mission to connect and collaborate as a way to provide ongoing support to each other beyond the conference. There will be workshops designed to teach our sisters how to “Get their Fight Back, be Positioned for Prayer, Pause for Praise and learn how important it is to be Poured out for Purpose.”

This conference carries the spirit of WOW’s mission as it permeates through the event bridging sister ministries together on one accord to cover more territory for Jesus in our communities, states, and the nations.
